Kirklees & Calderdale Magazine

"We have been using 50 plus magazines for the last couple of years and it has helped us to get into the local market to generate future funding for both our 17 retail outlets and charity events. I would recommend the vehicle to generate business in the local community as well as brand awareness to the over 50s market place."

Oldham, Tameside & Rochdale Magazine

"Just to let you know I've now seen the latest edition of Stockport, Macclesfield and Cheshire East with our feature in it. It looks really good thanks. Also just to let you know I've had a phone call from a lady who had seen the Tameside, Oldham and Rochdale edition and rang up about one of our events listed on the page. She said she wanted to bring her grandchildren over to it. I asked her where she picked up the magazine and she said in Asda at Shaw. So we know it is getting seen outside of our area which is good. Thanks again."
